ANZAC DAY

The Ode

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

The Ode comes from For the Fallen, a poem by the English poet and writer Laurence Binyon (1869-1943)

PLENARY COUNCIL 2021

Listen to what the spirit is saying.....

A Plenary Council is the highest formal gathering of all local churches in a country. Our Plenary Council is being held so that we can dialogue about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia.

Preparations for the Council are well under way with the first Assembly taking place in multi-nodal format on 3rd October 2021.

After the Listening and Dialogue Phase was completed, the Instrumentum Laboris (Working Document) was produced. It seeks to offer an account of what the People of God have expressed, especially—though not exclusively—in the Listening and Dialogue and Listening and Discernment phases of the Plenary Council journey. The document is available for all to read on the Plenary Council web site: <https://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/>

All are encouraged to visit the Plenary Council web site for up to date information on the work of the Plenary Council and its delegates.

FEAST OF ST MARK 26th April 2020

Nothing is known for certain of Mark's origins or his youth. He is not mentioned in the Gospel that bears his name and only the faintest biographical sketch is possible. What is known is that Mark left his homeland in Palestine to follow first Saint Paul, and later, Saint Peter.

Mark sailed dangerous seas in primitive boats. He walked long stretches through desolate lands. He tried to convince hardened pagans and skeptical Romans that the Gospel message was true.

The words of the Acts of the Apostles, the letters of Saint Paul, and the First Letter of Saint Peter all put dots on the large map of Mark's life. Many blank spaces, however, still lay in between. Mark is traveling with Paul in Asia Minor, then he's with Barnabas on a boat over here, then he's with someone else over there, and then he disappears for a number of years.

Saint Mark is, of course, best known as the author of a Gospel. Like Saint Luke and Saint Paul, he was not one of the Twelve Apostles and so likely never met Jesus Christ in person. Scholars believe that the Gospel of Saint Mark relates the experiences of Saint Peter, Mark's mentor. Each Gospel has its own unique sources, emphases, and audiences. Mark writes for non-Jews who would be impressed by Christ's miracles more than His fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies.
